

GP ROLES IN QUEENSLAND AUSTRALIA

A different kind of General Practice

Join us for a career with purpose, and enjoy an excellent salary package and flexible, supportive workplace.

You will be joining an innovative, leading Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Controlled organisation situated within beautiful Queensland, with beaches, rainforests and city amenities all within easy reach for an enviable lifestyle.

Who we are

The Institute for Urban Indigenous Health (IUIH) is a leading, regional not-for-profit provider of health and wellbeing services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in South East Queensland. As an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, You will be part of our unique IUIH System of Care focussed on improving the health, wellbeing and economic independence of our community.

- Locations close to Brisbane, the Gold Coast and Sunshine Coast
- Make a difference in an integrated service that addresses the social determinants of health and chronic disease
- Join a friendly and supportive multidisciplinary team, supporting clients to access services with wrap-around support and a 'no wrong door' approach
- An incredible opportunity to learn about Aboriginal Ways of Knowing, Being, Seeing, Doing and Belonging, which are central to delivering culturally safe and responsive services
- Enjoy high levels of job satisfaction, with Australia's most satisfied GP's working in Aboriginal Community Controlled organisations (88% compared to 73% overall)

What we offer

- ⇒ Permanent employment and shorter-term paid sabbaticals for vocationally registered practitioners in good standing with their professional body (GMC - UK; IMC - Ireland; MCNZ or equivalent)
- ⇒ Excellent working conditions and salary packages, up to $340,000.00 AUD
- ⇒ Assistance to register with The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency – AHPRA through an expedited pathway
- ⇒ Employment visa sponsorship for eligible practitioners
- ⇒ Reimbursement of AHPRA registration and first year's medical indemnity fees on commencement.
- ⇒ Relocation assistance
- ⇒ Training and supervision to successfully navigate Australia's health system
- ⇒ Mentoring and support to develop the necessary skills and attributes to deliver high-quality, accessible services for urban Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients and Communities

If you're interested in making the move to Australia, or just curious about what a day in the life looks like for a GP working with us, we'd love to chat!

For a confidential yarn (chat), email recruitment@iuih.org.au

To find out more about GP roles, visit iuih.org.au/gp-careers

Chat with our GP's in WhatsApp:
Dr Richard Mills: +61 423 225 826
Dr Cindy-Lee Swannell: +61 407 706 458