Mental Health Nurse/Registered Nurse and/or Registered Midwife (Nurse Supervisor)
Australian Nurse Family Partnership
(Ongoing, fulltime)

The Institute for Urban Indigenous Health (IUIH) was established to provide a coordinated and integrated approach to the planning, development and delivery of primary health care services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander populations within the South East Queensland.

The Australian Nurse Family Partnership Program (ANFPP) is a program of sustained and scheduled home visiting that begins during the antenatal period and continues until the child is 2 years old. Based on the model developed by Professor David Olds in the USA, the AFNPP involves nurses and/or midwives working in partnership with women who are pregnant with an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander baby, through an intensive home visiting program of evidence based interventions.

The position of Nurse Supervisor contributes by leading, modelling, coordinating and working with a team of up to 8 nurse home visitors and 3 Indigenous Family Partnership Workers. The position will be based on Brisbane South Side and the team will provide support to women who live within the catchment areas of Metro South Health and Hospital Service including the three maternity hospitals (Mater Mothers, Redlands and Logan).

Competitive Salary Package will be negotiated based on qualifications, skills and experience with the successful applicant. IUIH provides 17.5% annual leave loading plus salary sacrifice.
